AT ALSO
JULY 8-10

MUBI

As part of our nocturnal programming at ALSO, we worked with MUBI, the global streaming and distribution company on a mini-film festival.

The MUBI Screen took over the main stage late each night, with guests able to enjoy a hand-picked selection of films – including Céline Sciamma’s spellbinding PETITE MAMAN to Joachim Trier’s Oscar®-nominated coming-of-age THE WORST PERSON IN THE WORLD to Ben Sharrock’s LIMBO the offbeat Scottish comedy which depicts the refugee experience with huge heart and warmth.

SEEDLIP/DIAGEO

We were delighted to be joined by Seedlip, the world's leading non-alcoholic spirit.

Over the weekend, Seedlip had an on-site bar - the Spritz Bar where guests could enjoy a delicious selection of tipples, ranging from alcohol-free, low ABV and full-strength cocktails.

Seedlip and the award-winning The Pickle House ran two fully-subscribed Non-alcoholic Bloody Mary Masterclasses, with guests learning how to make their own cocktails and enjoy various tastings during the sessions

NATALIE HAYNES/PAN MACMILLAN

We collaborated with rock star classicist, Transmission Prize winner and Women's Prize-shortlisted author, Natalie Haynes to produce a spectacular show on Saturday Night at ALSO for her upcoming novel, STONE BLIND in which Medusa's story is retold.

There were many chances for ALSO guests to be part of the celebration from joining the in-festival choir with bespoke arrangements, participating in an especially choreographed dance with a professional dance trope, designing a Gorgon Shield to Head-Dress Making, and huge mythological lantern building.

PROSPECT MAGAZINE

Much of our programming at ALSO was around the subject of the 'Future of News'. This strand of programming was designed to help us all to take a closer look at the way we consume, respond to and allow news into our lives and so we were so pleased to partner with Prospect.

Prospect editor, Alan Rusbridger ran two sessions at the festival, alongside creating bespoke emails and socials posted before and during the festival. ALSO guests were offered the chance to sign up for a free copy of Prospect Magazine to take a closer look at the work that they do.
